Weitere Informationen:

The Europa Cantat Festival is one of largest international music festivals worldwide.

Singers, composers, conductors, instrumentalists and choral publishers from all over the world will participate at the eight-day festival.

Approximately 50 of the world's greatest conductors and mentors will attend this event to hold workshops adapted to the participants, who are both choral music enthusiasts and professionals. The choral programme lists around 100 choral events and has a diverse accompanying programme of cultural events in the city that for eight days lives and breathes music.
